THE WAR
ILLUSTRATED

The Russian Red Cross is using skis in the Eastern theatre of war, where winter has set in. Several skis lashed together make sledges to carry the wounded.

PRUSSIAN GUARDS REPULSED IN FINAL ATTACK AT YPRES.

The German infantry of the line having failed to break through the British defences, the Prussian Guards were summoned to make the supreme effort. They made the attack in masses with great gallantry, but the hot fire from artillery, rifles and machine guns rendered their task impossible.
